Sir,

I am directed to state that the proposals received for the reconstitution of Town Municipal Councils are defective in several respects with the result that it involves needless ^{consequence} ~~consequence~~ before the final orders of Government could be passed in such cases

I am to report that
With a view to obviate delay in this respect, the following particulars may be invariably furnished in this behalf -

(1) The population - Communitywar - of the Town according to the latest census

(2) A statement showing the community to which the elected members belong

(3) A statement showing generally double the number of names of members of unrepresented communities proposed for nomination Details about the age, property or other qualification of such persons, communities to which they belong and their local influence should be furnished The recommendation for nomination should be strictly in accordance with the instructions issued

With a view to obviate delay in this respect I am to request that the following particulars may be invariably furnished in this behalf —

- (1) The population—Communitywar of the town according to the latest census
- (2) A statement showing the community to which the elected members belong
- (3) A statement showing generally double the number of names of members of unrepresented communities proposed for nomination. Details about the age, property or other qualification of such persons. Communities to which they belong and their local influence should be furnished. The recommendation for nomination should be strictly in accordance with the instructions issued in G O No. L 2900 7—ML 181 32 1 dated 21st October 1932
- (4) Information regarding any other peculiar features disclosed during the general elections as compared with the previous elections may also be given

2 In several instances the proposals for the reconstitution of Municipal Councils were submitted to Government leaving hardly a few days before the term of the Municipal Councils expired. It was found difficult in such cases for the Government to pass orders quickly especially in the absence of relevant particulars required in that behalf.

3 Arrangements should therefore be made to hold the general elections a month at least before the term of the Municipal Council expires and to submit the results to Government within a week after the elections are declared so as to enable the Government to consider the recommendations for nomination and pass suitable orders.

4 The instructions should be adhered to strictly.
